INSTRUCTIONS

FOR COMPLETING FORM C-404, REPORT OF BUILDING OR ZONING PERMITS ISSUED AND LOCAL PUBLIC CONSTRUCTION

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

Complete each section by summarizing information for number of buildings, number of housing units, and estimated valuation of construction as taken from building or zoning permits.

If buildings have multiple uses (e.g., combination office and apartment building) classify them according to their primary use.

Enter item in only one category. If you are unable to determine where to classify an item, list it in the comments section.

STRUCTURES TO INCLUDE

Include all types of construction whether privately or publicly owned. Privately-owned construction is defined as all buildings owned by a private company or individual during the period of construction. This includes all "turnkey" housing to be sold when completed to a local public housing authority and housing built by nonprofit organizations. Publicly-owned construction is defined as all buildings owned by a governmental body during the period of construction. Include a foundation permit only when a separate foundation permit is issued and it has a construction cost. If it has a construction cost, enter the cost on the proper item line in accordance with the intended use of the superstructure; however, do not enter the number of buildings or housing units. Report the buildings or housing units and the remaining cost of the building in the month the superstructure is authorized. This procedure is to prevent reporting the data twice.

STRUCTURES TO EXCLUDE

Exclude permits for installation of plumbing, electrical, or similar mechanical work, and the erection or placement of manufactured items, such as: fences, signs, tanks, solar panels, roofing, siding, television antennas, etc.

MAILING DATE: Please mail your report on or before the 4th day of the month following the month just ended.

CHANGE IN GEOGRAPHIC COVERAGE OF PERMIT SYSTEM: To report basic changes in geographic coverage of this permit system, mark the "Yes" box and briefly explain under comments; e.g., merger, annexation, incorporation of a permit place from part of unincorporated permit place, discontinuance of permit system, disincorporation, etc. If the geographic coverage of this permit system has not changed during this period, mark the "No" box.

NO PERMIT ACTIVITY: If no permits were issued during the month, mark an "X" in the box provided and return in the enclosed preaddressed envelope.

REVISIONS OF EARLIER MONTH'S REPORT: If revisions of previous month's data should occur, enter the revised information and reference month of original data under "comments."

INSTRUCTIONS FOR CLASSIFYING INFORMATION ON FORM C-404

Section I — NEW RESIDENTIAL HOUSEKEEPING BUILDINGS AND MOBILE HOMES

Classify buildings as described below. Please note that type of ownership (e.g., condominium or cooperative) should not be considered when classifying buildings, and that a housing unit is defined as a single room or group of rooms intended for occupancy as separate living quarters. Separate living quarters are those in which the occupants do not live and eat with any other persons in the structure and which has either (1) direct access from outside of the building or through a common hall, or (2) complete kitchen facilities for the exclusive use of the occupants. Include buildings containing housekeeping units in combination with space for office and professional use, provided the buildings are primarily for residential purposes.

Items 101—102 — One-family houses — Include all one-family houses. Include prefabricated, sectionalized, panelized, and modular homes which are manufactured partially off-site but which are transported and assembled at the construction site. Exclude mobile homes and moved or relocated buildings.

Item 101 — Include all detached one-family houses.

Item 102 — Include all one-family houses attached. Each unit must be separated from adjoining units by a wall that extends from ground to roof. Also, there are no common heating systems or interstructural public utilities. Each unit is counted as a separate building.

Item 103 — Two-family buildings — Include all buildings containing two housing units which may be one above the other or side-by-side. If built side-by-side, they either (1) do not have a wall that extends from ground to roof or (2) share a heating system or (3) have interstructural public utilities such as water supply/sewage disposal.

Item 104 — Three- and four-family buildings — Include all buildings containing three or four housing units. If built side-by-side, they either (1) do not have a wall that extends from ground to roof or (2) share a heating system or (3) have interstructural public utilities such as water supply/sewage disposal.

Item 105 — Five-or-more family buildings — Include all buildings containing five or more housing units. If built side-by-side, they either (1) do not have a wall that extends from ground to roof or (2) share a heating system or (3) have interstructural public utilities such as water supply/sewage disposal.

Item 109 — Summarize information in items 101 through 105.

Item 112 — Mobile homes (house trailers) — Include only mobile homes for which building permits are issued. A mobile home is defined as a moveable dwelling, 10 feet or more wide and 35 feet or more long, designed to be towed on its own chassis, with transportation gear integral to the unit when it leaves the factory, and without need of a permanent foundation.

SUBJECT Connecticut Housing Production and Construction Activity Authorized by Building Permits : 1983

It is my pleasure to submit a copy of the computer print-out of 1983 data on housing production, as directed in your memorandum of March 22, 1984, by the deadline specified.

The data contained in these tables represent permits for construction, alteration, and demolition in 172 permit-issuing jurisdictions, as reported monthly by municipal building officials or their designees, through December 1983. However, for the period March through December 1983, if the reports were received by the U.S. Bureau of the Census after the middle of the month following the survey month, estimates for missing data have not been replaced at this time. The number of months for which reports were received and are included in the data file, is indicated in the Valuation of Residential Construction portion of the Housing Units and Residential Construction Activity table. As changes and deletes are to be made against the file, later runs of the tables will be necessary. A copy of the 1/25/84 "Preliminary New Housing Units Authorized by Building Permits: 1983" is attached for convenience. Where discrepancies exist, these numbers would be more accurate.

Also included in the data are federal contracts for new publicly owned housing units, corrections of reporting errors resolved while preparing press releases, corrected 1980 through 1982 housing production data, and 1980 Census counts of housing units per structure. Not included are data from Bantam Borough and Groton Long Point, annual reports from municipal officials, and other resolutions of reporting errors. Certain Stafford Town data are duplicated by Stafford Springs Borough.

Analysis of the data indicates that housing units gained or lost through additions and alterations and through change of use, as well as in new one-family attached vis a vis multifamily stuctures, may be inaccurately reported. Investment in housekeeping additions and alterations is clearly underreported as a result of a format problem. Further verification of much of the data is needed.

The attached DOHCAIS DATA PROCESSING SUMMARY indicates the high level of production maintained between the Bureau of Information Systems and Data Processing of DAS and myself of the Department of Housing.

ADDITIONS AND ALTERATIONS WHICH RESULT IN -

AN INCREASE IN THE NUMBER OF HOUSING UNITS - additional units available for occupancy created by altering/adding to existing residential housekeeping space, ranging from a single accessory apartment to a high-rise tower

A DECREASE IN THE NUMBER OF HOUSING UNITS - units in existing residential housekeeping buildings no longer available for occupancy, usually as the result of merging the space into unit(s) retained

NO CHANGE IN THE NUMBER OF HOUSING UNITS - no units gained or lost (often under-reported as a result of confusion with "Additions and Alterations: All other buildings and structures")

CHANGE OF USE - housing units converted from/to non-housekeeping/non-residential use, such as seasonal cottages without kitchens, dormitories, factories, offices, etc.

DEMOLITIONS - housing units in housekeeping residential buildings authorized for demolition or razing

GAINS - authorized increases to the housing inventory,including housing units in new residential housekeeping buildings and mobile homes as well as increases resulting from additions and alterations and change of use

HOUSING UNIT - a single room or group of rooms intended for occupancy as separate living quarters

LOSSES - authorized decreases from the housing inventory, including demolitions as well as housing units decreased by additions and alterations and change of use

NET GAIN - authorized increases to the housing inventory minus authorized decreases

NON-HOUSEKEEPING BUILDINGS - residential buildings intended for transient accommodations and other shelter (new dormitories, etc. are classified by their affilliation)

MOBILE/MANUFACTURED HOMES - mobile homes for which building permits are issued (not uniformly required); intrinsically moveable dwellings, 10 feet or more wide and 35 feet or more long, designed to be towed on their own wheeled chassis, with transportation gear integral to the unit when they leave the factory, and without need of permanent foundations (the two I-beams of the chassis remain as basic structure)

1 UNIT ATTACHED - a housing unit separated from adjoining units by a wall that extends from ground to roof, such as a rowhouse or a townhouse, without either a common attic or a common basement, and not attached to a unit superimposed over another unit

1 UNIT DETACHED - a one-family house surrounded by open land on all sides

PERCENT CHANGE - the net gain in housing units during the survey period divided by the estimated count of units at the start of the period

PER UNIT (VALUE) - the average estimated value of construction of one-unit detached houses or of other housing units gained

BUREAU OF THE CENSUS

INSTRUCTIONS

FOR COMPLETING FORM C-404, REPORT OF BUILDING OR ZONING PERMITS ISSUED AND LOCAL PUBLIC CONSTRUCTION

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

Complete each section by summarizing information for number of buildings, number of housing units, and estimated valuation of construction as taken from building or zoning permits.

If buildings have multiple uses (e.g., combination office and apartment building) classify them according to their primary use.

Enter item in only one category. If you are unable to determine where to classify an item, list it in the comments section.

STRUCTURES TO INCLUDE

Include all types of construction whether privately or publicly owned. Privately-owned construction is defined as all buildings owned by a private company or individual during the period of construction. This includes all "turnkey" housing to be sold when completed to a local public housing authority and housing built by nonprofit organizations. Publicly-owned construction is defined as all buildings owned by a governmental body during the period of construction. Include a foundation permit only when a separate foundation permit is issued and it has a construction cost. If it has a construction cost, enter the cost on the proper item line in accordance with the intended use of the superstructure; however, do not enter the number of buildings or housing units. Report the buildings or housing units and the remaining cost of the building in the month the superstructure is authorized. This procedure is to prevent reporting the data twice.

STRUCTURES TO EXCLUDE

Exclude permits for installation of plumbing, electrical, or similar mechanical work, and the erection or placement of manufactured items, such as: fences, signs, tanks, solar panels, roofing, siding, television antennas, etc.

MAILING DATE: Please mail your report on or before the 4th day of the month following the month just ended.

CHANGE IN GEOGRAPHIC COVERAGE OF PERMIT SYSTEM: To report basic changes in geographic coverage of this permit system, mark the "Yes" box and briefly explain under comments; e.g., merger, annexation, incorporation of a permit place from part of unincorporated permit place, discontinuance of permit system, disincorporation, etc. If the geographic coverage of this permit system has not changed during this period, mark the "No" box.

NO PERMIT ACTIVITY: If no permits were issued during the month, mark an "X" in the box provided and return in the enclosed preaddressed envelope.

REVISIONS OF EARLIER MONTH'S REPORT: If revisions of previous month's data should occur, enter the revised information and reference month of original data under "comments."

INSTRUCTIONS FOR CLASSIFYING INFORMATION ON FORM C-404

Section I – NEW RESIDENTIAL HOUSEKEEPING BUILDINGS AND MOBILE HOMES

Classify buildings as described below. Please note that type of ownership (e.g., condominium or cooperative) should not be considered when classifying buildings, and that a housing unit is defined as a single room or group of rooms intended for occupancy as separate living quarters. Separate living quarters are those in which the occupants do not live and eat with any other persons in the structure and which has either (1) direct access from outside of the building or through a common hall, or (2) complete kitchen facilities for the exclusive use of the occupants. Include buildings containing housekeeping units in combination with space for office and professional use, provided the buildings are primarily for residential purposes.

Items 101 – 102 – One-family houses – Include all one-family houses. Include prefabricated, sectionalized, panelized, and modular homes which are manufactured partially off-site but which are transported and assembled at the construction site. Exclude mobile homes and moved or relocated buildings.

Item 101 – Include all detached one-family houses.

Item 102 – Include all one-family houses attached. Each unit must be separated from adjoining units by a wall that extends from ground to roof. Also, there are no common heating systems or interstructural public utilities. Each unit is counted as a separate building.

Item 103 – Two-family buildings – Include all buildings containing two housing units which may be one above the other or side-by-side. If built side-by-side, they either (1) do not have a wall that extends from ground to roof or (2) share a heating system or (3) have interstructural public utilities such as water supply/sewage disposal.

Item 104 – Three- and four-family buildings – Include all buildings containing three or four housing units. If built side-by-side, they either (1) do not have a wall that extends from ground to roof or (2) share a heating system or (3) have interstructural public utilities such as water supply/sewage disposal.

Item 105 – Five-or-more family buildings – Include all buildings containing five or more housing units. If built side-by-side, they either (1) do not have a wall that extends from ground to roof or (2) share a heating system or (3) have interstructural public utilities such as water supply/sewage disposal.

Item 109 – Summarize information in Items 101 through 105.

Item 112 – Mobile homes (house trailers) – Include only mobile homes for which building permits are issued. A mobile home is defined as a moveable dwelling, 10 feet or more wide and 35 feet or more long, designed to be towed on its own chassis, with transportation gear integral to the unit when it leaves the factory, and without need of a permanent foundation.

Section II – NEW RESIDENTIAL NONHOUSEKEEPING BUILDINGS

March 1, 1985

The Honorable William A. O'Neill
Governor
State of Connecticut
210 Capitol Avenue
Hartford, Connecticut 06106

Dear Governor O'Neill:

We are pleased to transmit the 1984 data on housing production in this edition of Connecticut Housing Production and Permit Authorized Construction.

The report on housing production in the state, published annually by the Department of Housing, is distributed to all public libraries, regional planning agencies, and utility companies. Copies are also made available, on request to economists, mortgage analysts, municipal planners, appraisal firms, market researchers, and others vitally in need of current housing and construction information.

Through the Department of Housing Construction Activity Information System (DOHCAIS), we are able to report that 19,385 housing units were authorized during 1984 to be added to the Connecticut Housing Inventory. There were 18,137 units in new construction, 684 units gained by change of use of nonresidential and nonhousekeeping buildings to housing, and 428 units added through additions and alterations to existing buildings. Finally, there were 136 mobile home placements.

Connecticut lost 1,234 housing units during 1984, including 1,063 units demolished, 92 units changed from housing, and 79 units lost through additions and alterations to existing residential buildings.

The net gain, to the housing stock, during 1984, was 18,151 units. This figure was up 14.2 percent from the 1983 net gain of 15,899 units. New construction was at its highest level in 1984, since 1973, for which year the U.S. Bureau of the Census reported 22,278 new housing units were authorized in Connecticut.

We welcome the opportunity to provide current information on housing and construction to those charged with making decisions to address basic human needs.

Sincerely yours,

E Canale

CONNECTICUT HOUSING PRODUCTION AND PERMIT AUTHORIZED CONSTRUCTION: 1984

The Department of Housing is the lead agency of the State of Connecticut for all matters relating to housing. Among other duties, the Department monitors the progress of the public and private sectors toward meeting housing needs. The Department also collects and annually publishes statistics on housing production in the state and provides monthly updates to the news media.

This report presents annual statistics on permit authorized construction, specifically, additions to and losses from the Connecticut housing inventory. The statistics are based upon reports submitted by local building permit offices in response to a monthly mail survey conducted jointly by the Construction Statistics Division of the U.S. Bureau of the Census and the Connecticut Department of Housing.

The recorded value of all authorized construction activity during 1984 increased 17.9 percent to $2.1 billion, from the $1.8 billion level of 1983. The number of permits for construction and alteration increased 8.0 percent to 50,945 building permits from the 47,151 permits issued during 1983.

TOTAL HOUSING PRODUCTION

During 1984, a total of 19,385 housing units were authorized to be added to the Connecticut housing inventory. This figure was up 14.5 percent from the 16,927 housing units approved in 1983, and up 65.7 percent from the 11,700 housing units allowed in 1982. Prior to 1982, the survey was not as comprehensive, but it appears that fewer than 11,000 housing units were permitted in 1981 as well as in 1980.

The 19,092 privately owned total housing units authorized during 1984 were up 15.6 percent from the 16,515 private units allowed in 1983. During 1984, a total of 293 publicly owned housing units were approved to be added to the inventory. In contrast, this figure was down 28.9 percent from the 412 housing authority owned units allowed in 1983.

Housing production climbed sharply during 1984, from a low of 745 total housing units authorized in January, to a high of 2,013 total housing units approved in April. What seasonally would have been expected to have been an active summer was in fact a trough with the low point in September. A cresting in October started a surprisingly strong fourth quarter.

NEW HOUSING

New construction accounted for 18,137 of the units authorized during 1984, or 93.6 percent of the total. These new housing units were 14.4 percent more than the 15,856 new units approved in 1983. New construction reached its highest level in 1984 in over a decade. For 1973, the previous high point, the U.S. Bureau of the Census reported that 22,278 new housing units were authorized in Connecticut.

The 17,846 privately owned new housing units authorized during 1984 were up 15.3 percent from the 15,472 new private units approved in 1983. The 291 public housing authority owned new housing units permitted during 1984 were down 24.2 percent from the 384 new public units granted in 1983.

As the new housing units comprised 93.6 percent of the total units gained during 1984, it may be expected that the monthly activity followed similar patterns. However, the April peak of 1,899 new housing units authorized was only 81 units higher than the September cresting point. The spread for total gains was 149 housing units authorized in these two months. The September low point in the seasonal trough was 1,417 units in new construction contrasted with 1,596 total housing units. Despite the generally strong fourth quarter, new construction dropped to 1,536 new housing units authorized in December compared to the 1,767 total housing units approved during the same month.

The reporting form changed with the 1982 survey year and it is now possible to distinguish between single-family detached housing and single-family attached housing. Each attached row or town house unit is counted as a separate building when it is separated from its neighbor by an unbroken ground-to-roof party wall. Of the 17,846 new privately owned housing units authorized during 1984: 53.2 percent, or 9,517 housing units were in detached one-family houses; 22.6 percent, or 4,031 units were in attached one-family row and town houses; 19.1 percent, or 3,401 units were in 208 buildings with five or more units; 2.9 percent, or 512 units were in two-family buildings; 2.2 percent, or 385 units were in three-and four-family housing.

In contrast, 91.8 percent of the 291 new publicly owned housing units authorized during the year, or 267 units were in attached one-family row and town houses, and 8.2 percent, or 24 units were in one building.

ADAPTIVE USE FOR HOUSING

During 1984, a total of 71 existing nonresidential and nonhousekeeping buildings were authorized to be converted to housekeeping buildings, adding 684 units to the housing inventory, 3.5 percent of the total gains. Since 1980, some 2,703 housing units were authorized in Connecticut to be so converted. Many were in larger cities which have experienced a lot of demolitions. A major portion of the housing units thus gained were made feasible through rehabilitation tax credits, especially for historic preservation. The three largest conversion projects authorized in 1984 were from factory buildings: the 185-unit Clocktower Mill of Manchestet; the 132-unit Clocktower Close of Norwalk; and the 104 unit Ribbon Mill also of Manchester. As these conversions were approved in December, September and May, respectively, downturns in new construction were partially offset in those months. All three projects are being developed as rental apartments and have been approved for 25-percent investment tax credits for certified rehabilitation of income-producing certified historic structures. From November 1977 through December 1984, some 5,021 housing units have been rehabilitated in Connecticut using this incentive. About 30 percent of the units are for low-and moderate-income tenants.

ACCESSORY APARTMENTS

Additions and alterations to existing buildings authorized in 1984 provided 428 housing units. The typical situation was changing a one-family house to a two-family house, or converting a residential garage to an additional housing unit. Of the total gains, 2.2 percent of the housing units were added in this manner.

MOBILE HOMES

While there were probably twice as many mobile-manufactured homes shipped to dealers in Connecticut during 1984, these were 136 mobile-manufactured homes authorized for placement. Only twenty municipalities issued such permits. Elsewhere, in those towns where mobile-manufactured homes are allowed and they were placed, a permit may not be required.

NET GAIN

There was a total net gain of 18,151 housing units authorized during 1984. Subtracting demolition from new construction, there were net gains of 17,074 housing units; of 13,437 housing units in attached and detached one-family houses; of 372 units in two-family buidings; of 201 units in three- and four-family buildings; of 3,064 units in 180 five-or-more unit buildings.

There was a total of 1,063 housing units authorized for demolition during 1984, the most since the 1,359 housing units approved for demolition in 1980. Other losses from the housing inventory permitted in 1984 include: 92 housing units converted to offices and other non-residential and non-housekeeping uses; 79 housing units merged into existing housing through additions and alterations.

GEOGRAPHIC DISTRIBUTION

The highest regional net housing production authorized during 1984 was in the Capitol region, as has been true throughout the eighties. The region's 3,971 housing unit growth in 1984 accounted for 21.9 percent of the total state net gain. The leading towns for this region were: Manchester, with 556 housing units net gain (267 units, or fewer than half, were in new construction); Glastonbury, with 307 units (all new construction); Farmington, South Windsor, Avon, and Enfield. In each of the first four towns, there were more units authorized in attached one-family housing than in detached housing.

The leading town in the state during 1984, however, was Stamford. The authorized net gain of 1,529 housing units was nearly double that of Danbury, the second ranking town. Stamford had 1,194 housing units in 22 new structures with five or more units, and 58 units demolished. Danbury had a net gain of 794 housing units, which included 645 units of new attached one-family housing. After Manchester, which ranked third, Wallingford had a net gain of 464 housing units, including 273 new detached one-family houses, the most of any town in the state.

Leading towns also included in order: Bristol, Norwalk, Shelton, New Haven and Glastonbury. Tenth ranking Bridgeport had an authorized net gain of 303 housing units, despite 289 housing units authorized for demolition, the most in any town.

INVESTMENT

The total investment in authorized residential construction and alterations in 1984 was $1.2 billion, up 16.6 percent from the 1983 level of $1 billion. The recorded value of new privately owned housekeeping residential construction increased 27.1 percent during 1984 to $952 million from the previous year value of $748.9 million.

The $630 million value of one-family detached houses authorized in 1984 works out to $66,194 per house. The average value is up 10.5 percent from $59,915 in 1983. Investment in adaptive use for housing, accessory apartments, hotels and other shelter of $55.8 million in 1984 decreased 31.5 percent from $81.4 million investment in 1983. The value of additions and alterations to housing without an increase in units of $211.9 million in 1984 increased 5.4 percent from $201 million in 1983. These figures generally exclude the cost of on-site and off-site development and the cost of heating, plumbing electrical and elevator installations.

INVENTORY CHANGE

At the end of 1984, there were an estimated 1,222,596 housing units in Connecticut. This estimate is based on a net gain of 63,712 housing units authorized from January 1980 through December 1984,added to a base of 1,158,884 housing units, counted by the U.S. Bureau of the Census,as of April 1, 1980. The net gain reflected a 5.5 percent growth in the housing stock over the five-year period.

There were approximately 757,821 one-family detached and attached houses in Connecticut's housing inventory at the end of 1984, or 62.0 percent of the total. The net gain of 43,728 housing units was 68.7 percent of the total net gain and was a 6.1 percent increase from 714,093 one-family houses counted in 1980.

Of the total net gain of 43,728 one-family houses, 9,480 houses, or 21.7 percent, were new attached one-family houses authorized from January 1982 through 1984. They represented a 30.5 percent increase over the 31,039 attached one-family houses counted in 1980. As the survey form changed, attached one-family houses authorized prior to 1982 could not be directly reported distinct from detached one-family houses. An additional 495 new attached one-family houses authorized 1980 through 1981, were identified in the process of correcting individual monthly reports recorded in the DOHCAIS file.

There were an estimated 217,073 housing units in structures with five units or more in Connecticut's housing stock at the end of 1984, or 17.,8 percent of the total. The net gain of 15,941 housing units was 25.0 percent of the total net gain and was 7.9 percent increase over the 201,132 such units counted in 1980.

There were about 123,756 housing units in two-family houses and 111,869 housing units in three- and four-family houses at the end of 1984, or 10.1 percent and 9.2 percent respectively, of the total inventory. The net gains of 658 housing units and 595 housing units were 1.0 percent and 0.9 percent respectively, of the total net gain. In both instances, there was a 0.5 percent increase from the 123,098 units in two-family houses and 111,274 units in three- and four-family houses counted in 1980.

The 9,779 mobile/manufactured homes estimated at the end of 1984 represents 492 placements, authorized 1980 through 1984, added to 9,287 mobile/manufactured homes counted in 1980.

A net gain of 2,160 housing units resulting from residential housekeeping additions and alterations to existing buildings was authorized from 1982 through 1984. Prior to 1982, gains and losses from this source was not directly reported. An additional net gain of 138 housing units authorized in 1981 were noted in reports from local building officials.

COVER

The cover illustrates the variety of building types employed by the private and public sectors in meeting housing needs and conserving resources. From top to bottom: typical attached one-family townhouses, the staggered arrangement emphasizes the ground-to-roof wall used to separate adjoining units; Rippowam Manor, Stamford, an 82-family nine-story building cooperatively subsidized by the City of Stamford, the Connecticut Housing Finance Authority (CHFA), the Department of Housing (DOH), and the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD); "The Cape", a traditionally styled passive solar one-and-a-half story detached one-family house design from the Northeast Utilities "Solar Home Planbook"; Clocktower Mill Apartments, Cheney National Historic District, Manchester, a 185 unit conversion from a factory building, financed by CHFA.

INSTRUCTIONS

FOR COMPLETING FORM C-404, REPORT OF BUILDING OR ZONING PERMITS ISSUED AND LOCAL PUBLIC CONSTRUCTION

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

Complete each section by summarizing information for number of buildings, number of housing units, and estimated valuation of construction as taken from building or zoning permits.

If buildings have multiple uses (e.g., combination office and apartment building) classify them according to their primary use.

Enter item in only one category. If you are unable to determine where to classify an item, list it in the comments section.

STRUCTURES TO INCLUDE

Include all types of construction whether privately or publicly owned. Privately-owned construction is defined as all buildings owned by a private company or individual during the period of construction. This includes all "turnkey" housing to be sold when completed to a local public housing authority and housing built by nonprofit organizations. Publicly-owned construction is defined as all buildings owned by a governmental body during the period of construction. Include a foundation permit only when a separate foundation permit is issued and it has a construction cost. If it has a construction cost, enter the cost on the proper item line in accordance with the intended use of the superstructure; however, do not enter the number of buildings or housing units. Report the buildings or housing units and the remaining cost of the building in the month the superstructure is authorized. This procedure is to prevent reporting the data twice.

STRUCTURES TO EXCLUDE

Exclude permits for installation of plumbing, electrical, or similar mechanical work, and the erection or placement of manufactured items, such as: fences, signs, tanks, solar panels, roofing, siding, television antennas, etc.

MAILING DATE: Please mail your report on or before the 4th day of the month following the month just ended.

CHANGE IN GEOGRAPHIC COVERAGE OF PERMIT SYSTEM: To report basic changes in geographic coverage of this permit system, mark the "Yes" box and briefly explain under comments; e.g., merger, annexation, incorporation of a permit place from part of unincorporated permit place, discontinuance of permit system, disincorporation, etc. If the geographic coverage of this permit system has not changed during this period, mark the "No" box.

NO PERMIT ACTIVITY: If no permits were issued during the month, mark an "X" in the box provided and return in the enclosed preaddressed envelope.

REVISIONS OF EARLIER MONTH'S REPORT: If revisions of previous month's data should occur, enter the revised information and reference month of original data under "comments."

INSTRUCTIONS FOR CLASSIFYING INFORMATION ON FORM C-404

Section I — NEW RESIDENTIAL HOUSEKEEPING BUILDINGS AND MOBILE HOMES

Classify buildings as described below. Please note that type of ownership (e.g., condominium or cooperative) should not be considered when classifying buildings, and that a housing unit is defined as a single room or group of rooms intended for occupancy as separate living quarters. Separate living quarters are those in which the occupants do not live and eat with any other persons in the structure and which has either (1) direct access from outside of the building or through a common hall, or (2) complete kitchen facilities for the exclusive use of the occupants. Include buildings containing housekeeping units in combination with space for office and professional use, provided the buildings are primarily for residential purposes.

Items 101—102 — One-family houses — Include all one-family houses. Include prefabricated, sectionalized, panelized, and modular homes which are manufactured partially off-site but which are transported and assembled at the construction site. Exclude mobile homes and moved or relocated buildings.

Item 101 — Include all detached one-family houses.

Item 102 — Include all one-family houses attached. Each unit must be separated from adjoining units by a wall that extends from ground to roof. Also, there are no common heating systems or interstructural public utilities. Each unit is counted as a separate building.

Item 103 — Two-family buildings — Include all buildings containing two housing units which may be one above the other or side-by-side. If built side-by-side, they either (1) do not have a wall that extends from ground to roof or (2) share a heating system or (3) have interstructural public utilities such as water supply/sewage disposal.

Item 104 — Three- and four-family buildings — Include all buildings containing three or four housing units. If built side-by-side, they either (1) do not have a wall that extends from ground to roof or (2) share a heating system or (3) have interstructural public utilities such as water supply/sewage disposal.

Item 105 — Five-or-more family buildings — Include all buildings containing five or more housing units. If built side-by-side, they either (1) do not have a wall that extends from ground to roof or (2) share a heating system or (3) have interstructural public utilities such as water supply/sewage disposal.

Item 109 — Summarize information in items 101 through 105.

Item 112 — Mobile homes (house trailers) — Include only mobile homes for which building permits are issued.
